

Consumer Consent to Receive Information Electronically

Important Notice: In order to complete this transaction online, you will complete and submit your application electronically. We will also provide you certain disclosures required by law electronically. If you do not wish to submit your application online or receive disclosures electronically, you can close your browser and contact us by telephone at 888-733-5041. You can also apply for an account at any Equity Bank branch.

- You may print some disclosures we give you online using the print button on your browser or save them to your hard drive as you go through the application.
- You agree to receive the disclosures online, if applicable to your application:
 - a. Certain disclosures required in applications have also been included in the online application itself. You may receive paper copies of these disclosures by calling us at 888-733-5041 and giving us your name and mailing address. There is no charge for receiving paper copies of these disclosures.
- By submitting your application online you agree that the information submitted on this application has the same effect as information given on a paper application. You will also be agreeing to permit us to check your credit information.
- For security purposes, you cannot return to prior pages once you have selected "continue" at the bottom of any page, but you will have a chance to change any information you have submitted later by phone when one of our representatives calls you.
- After you submit your application online, we will contact you by telephone with instructions about how to complete the application process. The rest of the application process will be completed by telephone or in person.
